Buster the Boxer

One cold Christmas eve, Tiana was bouncing up and down on her bed making squeaky loud noises. Then, her mum comes up to tell her to stop bouncing and go to bed for Christmas day. Tiana went to sleep peacefully. While, Tiana was asleep her dad was building a trampoline for tomorrow. After he had built the trampoline I saw a bright red bow.

A few hours later, Tiana's mum and dad were watching TV. While I was looking out of the window. I saw two foxes go onto the trampoline. One of them jumped with a big bounce. Then looked at the other one. And did another big bounce. After the other fox jumped up into the air. A few seconds later, a Bager came to the trampoline. The bager did a bounce and they bounced together. All of a sudden a Squite and a hedgehog came to bounce as well. I looked out of the window I was very sad because they all got to bounce but I didn't get to.

The next morning Tiana came down stairs very excitedly for her Christmas present. Her mum and dad opened the doors so she could go outside to her trampoline. She was so happy she ran outside in her pj and slippers and dressing gown. Then I ran outside on to the trampoline to bounce on it. In the corner of my eye I saw the animals. My tongue was hanging out of my mouth.
